FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Cal Poly Series on Terrorism to Look at International Diplomacy Feb. 6

Cal Poly's discussion series on terrorism will continue at 7 p.m. Feb. 6 with a look at international diplomacy and the response to international terrorism.

The panel discussion will be in the Christopher Cohan Center's Philips Hall. Admission is free, and the public is invited.

Presenters will discuss the challenges diplomats face when they put together an international coalition such as the one organized after Sept. 11, how such a coalition is maintained in spite of differing objectives and priorities, and unintended consequences of organizing such a coalition.

The panelists will be political science faculty members Craig Arceneaux, Carl Lutrin and Carroll McKibbin (a former Foreign Service officer) and career Foreign Service officer Barbara K. Bodine, ambassador to the Republic of Yemen from 1997 until August 2001.

Political Science Professor Phil Fetzer will moderate the discussion, designed to provide information of general interest to the community.

For more information, contact Associate Vice Provost Anny Morrobel-Sosa at 756-1380 or Fetzer at 756-6147.
